"IGNORE THE PRESSURE AND BE POSITIVE!"

Neel Malik, class X, Greenwood High, Varthur, Bengaluru, scored 99% in his ICSE exams. He tells us how he marks high scores.

What was the key to your success?

I prepared a lot of practice papers to get an idea of how many marks were important. I also worked on practice papers from different boards to get an idea of what was needed. I trained my mind to think clearly and quickly.

What were the key challenges and how did you tackle them?

A big challenge in this exam was trying to remember all the important information. But I took practice tests before the exams to memorize the important topics. For the math exam, I focused on the topics that were relevant to the course and made sure I understood them. For the English exam, I focused on memorizing the key points and remembering them. I made sure I practiced as much as possible and was prepared for the exams.

Boys and girls don’t be so stressed. "It’s important to be calm and confident. We are all professionals in our own way, and we can handle any situation.

Cambridge English

CEFR Level A2 Reading

Question 1: Did you enjoy reading the text?

Yes, I enjoyed the text. The story was interesting and I found the characters to be well-developed.

Question 2: What did you learn from the text?

I learned about the importance of communication and the role of language in daily life. The text highlighted the importance of effective communication and the challenges that come with it.

Question 3: What do you think the author wanted to communicate in the text?

The author wanted to communicate the importance of communication and its role in daily life. The text highlighted the importance of effective communication and the challenges that come with it.

Cambridge English

CEFR Level B2 Speaking

What to speak?

- About your daily life
- About your hobbies
- About your school
- About your friends

How to speak?

- Speak clearly and confidently
- Speak in complete sentences
- Use correct grammar and vocabulary

How to test?

- Listen to the examiner and follow his/her instructions
- Speak for at least 3 minutes
- Use a variety of vocabulary and grammar structures

How to prepare?

- Review your past exams
- Practice answering questions
- Practice speaking for at least 3 minutes

Cambridge English

How do you think about the topics and ideas in the text?

The text emphasizes the importance of communication and its role in daily life. It also highlights the challenges that come with it. The text is thought-provoking and encourages us to think about the importance of communication in our daily lives.

Cambridge English

How will you use this information in your daily life?

I will use this information in my daily life by being more aware of the importance of communication. I will also try to improve my communication skills by practicing with my friends and family.

Cambridge English

How will you test your knowledge?

I will test my knowledge by answering similar questions in my exams and by practicing with my friends and family.