BOOKS

Books! Books! Books! There is so much to know! All you need is to flip through to the pages to get that extra dose of information. So simply read on...

READER’S CORNER

Times NIE youth reporters share an update on their recent reads

BUNGEE READ

LESS BY ANDREW SEAN GREER

The Bungey read this month is 'Less' by Andrew Sean Greer. This is a unique and heart-warming novel that follows the life of a 50-year-old gay man who suddenly finds himself on the brink of divorce after 32 years of marriage. Through his personal experiences, the reader is taken through a journey of self-discovery and reflection. It is a book that resonates with anyone who has experienced the ups and downs of life.

BELLALINGERING READ

DAVID AND GOLIATH BY MALCOLM GLASSMAN

Malcolm Glassman's book, 'David and Goliath', is a fascinating read. The book explores the story of David and Goliath, a biblical tale that has been interpreted in various ways over the centuries. The book examines the political and religious significance of the story, and how it continues to inspire people today.

IN THE WORKS

'The Thracian Women' by Tony Judit

The Thracian Women by Tony Judit is a gripping novel that follows the life of a woman named Lily in ancient Greece. The book explores themes of love, sacrifice, and survival as Lily navigates the complexities of life in ancient times.

LET’S TALK ABOUT

ANNE FRANK

A decision to destroy Anne Frank's diary by her sister's husband, Otto Frank, in an attempt to save the family from the Nazi concentration camp, led to the ultimate mystery of her fate. The diary, however, continued to be published and is now a symbol of the resilience of the human spirit. Today, the British author is appointed as an honorary fellow of the University of Oxford, in recognition of her contribution to literature.

FAQ

Who do you think will win the Nobel Prize in Literature?

It’s hard to predict who will win the Nobel Prize in Literature, but many readers are currently discussing the works of the shortlisted candidates. Some of the top contenders include Mexican-American author Jonathan Safran Foer, Italian writer Elena Ferrante, and Austrian author Peter Handke. Each of these authors has contributed significantly to literature and their works have received widespread recognition.

MEET THE ARTIST

RICHMOND WOODS

Richmond Woods is a British artist known for his large-scale sculptures and installations. He has exhibited his work in various prestigious galleries and museums around the world. His most recent exhibition, 'The Light of the World', was held at the Royal Academy of Arts in London. He is recognized for his unique approach to creating immersive and interactive works of art that engage with viewers on a personal level.

MOVIES ON TV

THE CHESIRE CAT: Lewis Carroll's 'Alice's Adventures in Wonderland'

A British actor plays the role of the Cheshire Cat in this new adaptation of Lewis Carroll's classic novel. The actor's portrayal brings a new level of depth and complexity to the character, making it a must-watch for fans of the story.

MURDER, MIDEAST, MIDEAST

LEADING A BOOK

A new book by leading author John Grisham is set to be released in the coming months. The novel, 'The Cross and the Shield', follows the story of a veterinarian who becomes involved in a conspiracy that threatens his family and his career. The book is a fast-paced thriller that is sure to keep readers on the edge of their seats.

IN THE ANIMAL KINGDOM

A new book by leading author John Grisham is set to be released in the coming months. The novel, 'The Cross and the Shield', follows the story of a veterinarian who becomes involved in a conspiracy that threatens his family and his career. The book is a fast-paced thriller that is sure to keep readers on the edge of their seats.